YOU ARE CALLED

Heavenly Father,
You created me in love me and called me by name.
Quiet my heart to hear Your voice,
Help me to rest in Your Truth -
That I am Fearfully and Wonderfully made.
Amen.

*Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name,
you are mine,

STELLA MARIS
OUR LADY, STAR OF THE SEA

"Look to the star, call on Mary"

- St. Bernard of Clairvaux

- ✦ Title and Origin: "Stella Maris", or "Star of the Sea", is one of the most ancient titles given to the Virgin Mary
- ✦ Role as Guide: As "Our Mother", Mary is seen as a leader and guide throughout life's challenges,
- ✦ Symbolism: She acts as a constant "North Star" that directs individuals to her Son, Jesus.
- ✦ Assurance of Faith: Her consistent presence reminds us that even in life's difficulties, God's love will ultimately triumph and lead people home.

WELCOME TO CRESCENDO

Every journey begins with a single note — and this first week invites us to tune our hearts to God's voice. Before we learn to see beauty in the world or in ourselves, we must rest in the truth that we already belong to Him. Our identity isn't earned or achieved; it's received. Like the sea that reflects the light of the sun, we reflect the love of the One who calls us by name. This week, let His words — “You are mine” — become the foundation on which everything else is built.

WEEKLY CHALLENGE

Every morning this week, repeat Isaiah 43:1 aloud as a reminder of your identity

Closing Prayer

Lord,

You have called me to be Yours.

Let me rest in the truth that I belong to you.

Keep Your words, "You are mine" in my heart and remind me that I am always loved and never alone.

Amen.

LIVING IT OUT

Take a few quiet moments to write what God is revealing to you this week.

When I hear the words, "You are mine," what stirs in my heart?

As I begin this journey, what do I most hope to receive from it?

How might I keep Isaiah 43:1 close to me in the coming weeks?
